About Our Podcast The Marriage Circle podcast is an engaging, informative and entertaining show where guests interview real people who have reached their goals, milestones, and even dreams, while living with and learning from their spouses. Through storytelling and candid interviews, guests demonstrate that the potential for healing the most profound relationships we have is always within reach. This season we're bringing back some of our favorite guests from the first few years to tell us what's happening in their lives and what they've been doing to make their marriages even better! Stay tuned for more great guests on the next episode!

The social media giant is also planning a new "Cambridge Analytica" centre in London, as it seeks to beef up its British operation in the face of increasing criticism about how it handles the personal data of its 1.8 billion users. The move will be the latest sign that Facebook is keen to keep the headquarters of its British operation closer to home, after a legal challenge led to a ruling that it had broken data protection law. Facebook said the new centre would be an "innovation hub" to boost artificial intelligence, the internet of things and other technologies which are "driving significant changes in our economy and society." It plans to invest about £35m ($48m) in the new facility, which 82157476af
